

SNO JETS YAHOO DISTRO POLICY

Approved September 2011

This is strictly a forum for information on Sno Jets Ski Club recreational and social events. Only paid Sno Jets members are allowed to send or receive messages through this distribution. All messages sent to this group are moderated, meaning they will not be released until approved by a board member, so please do not send your message multiple times if you don't see it show up right away.

You may not use this group to solicit sales, advertise products and/or services or request recommendations for products and/or services. Also, jokes, inappropriate material, or anything of a political, religious, or socially sensitive nature will not be approved. Violations will result in the member losing their ability to post messages to the group or, in extreme cases, dismissal from the club.

To advertise personal belongings for sale, lodging you can't use, or services you personally provide, paid members can use the Classifieds or Biz Exchange sections of the newsletter or web site.

Lastly, please remember to include your full name and contact information somewhere in your message so members know whom it's from. The board and all of the e-mail group members appreciate your cooperation in keeping this service a fun and informative one.
